

Contents

Acknowledgements	7
List of abbreviations	9
List of tables, figures and images	11
CHAPTER ONE
Consumer data and the war on terror	13
The new political economy of security and surveillance
CHAPTER TWO
Market logics and regulation.....	29
Theorising private sector involvement in national security surveillance
CHAPTER THREE
Shaping the regimes	55
Stakeholders and their interests
CHAPTER FOUR
Secure information flows?	73
Tensions, disruptions and realignments in information infrastructures
CHAPTER FIVE
The strategic response	93
Recognising, rationalising and refashioning in the retail travel customer relationship
CHAPTER SIX

Embedded adaptations	109
Renegotiating and reworking in the financial services customer relationship
 CHAPTER SEVEN
Cross-selling for security	137
Remediation work at the retail travel front-line
 CHAPTER EIGHT
Compliance conquers all?	153
Remediation work at the financial services front-line
 CHAPTER NINE
The private security state	169
Responsibilisation, surveillance and security
 CHAPTER TEN
The out-takes	189
Reflections on interdisciplinary working
References.....	207
Appendices	229